A Time for Laughter

RETHINKING

Bill and Polly's barn burned to the ground after being struck by lightning. Polly called their insurance agent. We had that barn insured for eighty thousand, and I want my money."

The agent replied, "Hold on just a minute, Polly. Insurance doesn't work quite like that. We will ascertain the value of what was insured and provide funds for a new barn of comparable worth."

There was a long pause before Polly replied, "Then I'd like to cancel that policy that I have on Bill."

ADVERTISEMENT PAYS

Getting away from their high-stress jobs, a couple spends weekends relaxing in their motor home. When they found that their peace and quiet was being frequently disturbed by visits at all hours by well-meaning neighbors, they devised a plan to assure themselves some privacy.

Now, when they set up camp, they place this sign on the door of their RV: "Insurance Agent – Ask about our term-life package."

NAN'S (AGE 9) PRAYER

"Dear God, I bet it's very hard for you to love all of everybody in the whole world. There are only 4 people in my family, and I can't do it."

The Twisted Tongue

A maid with a duster

Made a furious bluster

Dusting a bust in the hall.

When the bust it was dusted

The bust it was busted,

The bust it was dust, that's all.

A Quote to Note

Feeling gratitude and not expressing it is like wrapping a present and not giving it.
– William Arthur Ward (1921-1994)
